

Joseph Girardi, Specialty Casualty Program Veteran, Joins WKFC and CorRisk Solutions

December 3, 2018, MELVILLE, NY – WKFC Underwriting Managers and CorRisk Solutions are pleased to announce that Joseph Girardi has joined CorRisk as Senior Vice President – Specialty Casualty.

Joseph joins WKFC and CorRisk with over thirty years of experience across the commercial insurance industry. Previously, he served as Senior Vice President for Ironshore Insurance Services, where he was instrumental in building the Programs division and led their Program division in developing and administering specialty programs across all lines of business.

Joseph began his insurance career with AIG, where he worked from 1986 to 2001, rising from Regional Commercial Claims Representative to Assistant Vice President of their Agency Initiative. He continued his career as the Vice President, Marketing for AXA Corporate Solutions, before joining QBE Insurance & Reinsurance Corporation as Vice President, Underwriting and Programs, where he managed property, casualty, and specialty lines. Joseph took his position with Ironshore in 2009.

Speaking on her latest hire, Dawn D’Onofrio, President and CEO of WKFC and CorRisk, said, “We’re enthusiastic about adding Joseph’s underwriting expertise and program management experience to continue to build our professional lines and casualty programs. I am confident in Joseph’s ability to lead his specialty casualty teams to success by offering effective solutions for our clients.”

Remarking on his new position, Joseph commented, “I am thrilled to be part of the continued success of the CorRisk and WKFC teams and RSG culture where I can apply, and fully utilize, my program and underwriting experience and skills.”
