

To all of our valued Customers, Carriers and Vendors:

The Coronavirus is fully impacting all of our daily lives and as this worldwide crisis continues to unfold. The health and safety of everyone around us is through the lens of managing risk associated with COVID 19. As insurance professionals, we recognize our responsibility to our clients and the need to provide insurance coverage, timely claims processing and personal assurances of stability.

WKFC Underwriting Managers and CorRisk Solutions have implemented its business continuity plan in response to COVID 19 pandemic. In years past, we have invested considerable resources in technology, data and work processes that support a remote work culture. Both MGU underwriting platforms are fully operational and our 50+ underwriters are ready to assist with your client's needs. In addition our entire support team including Claims, Accounting, Marketing and Compliance teams are poised and ready to assist when and if the need arises. Our ultimate goal is to provide seamless services during what is revealing to be unpredictable and uncertain terms.

Our commitment to all of our partners is unwavering; we care deeply about our business partnerships. We are here to provide professionalism and support during this unsettling time.

Sincerely,
Dawn D'Onofrio
